Introduction

The surname Barton is believed to be derived from one or more place names, connected with the growing of barley. There have been Bartons living in High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire, England since at least 1619, when they first appeared in the local church records.

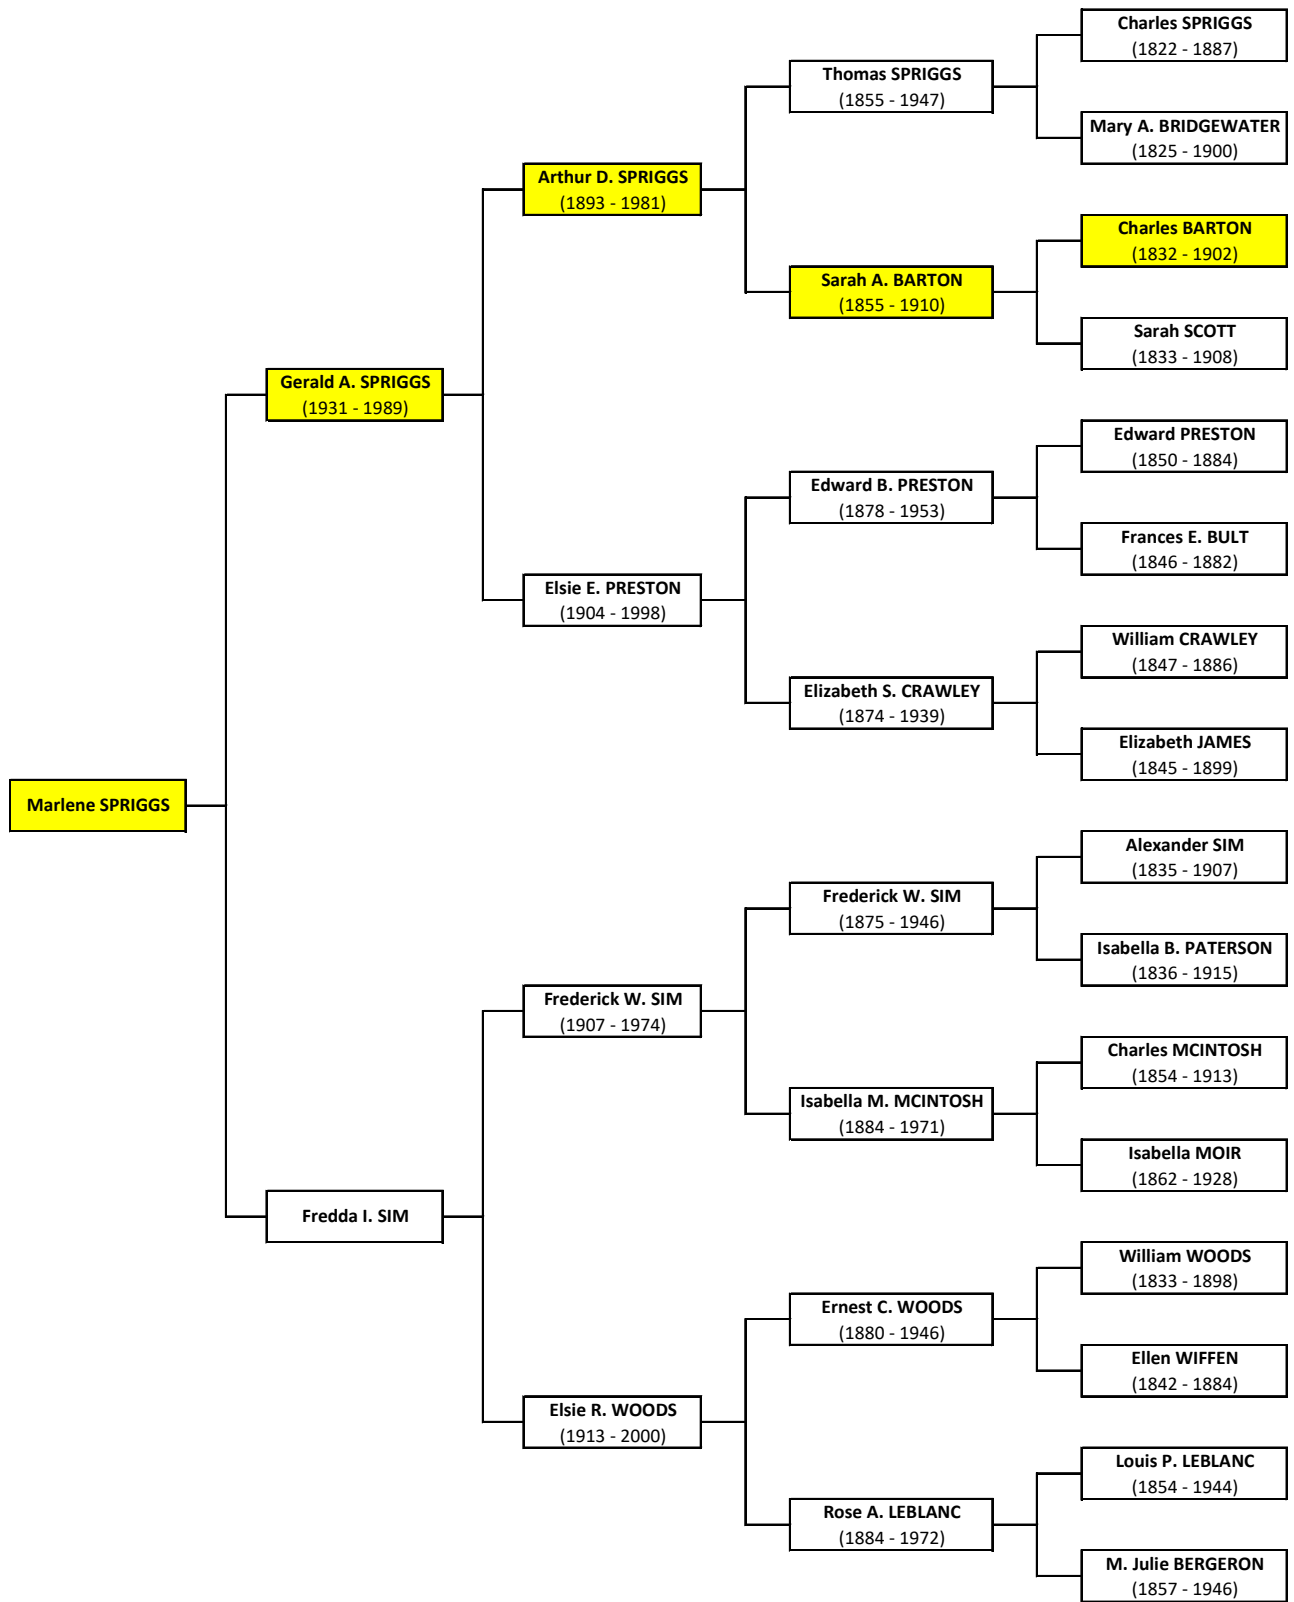

This document is focussed on my wife's Barton ancestors, the story begins with Richard Barton and Ann who married around 1795, and is intended to provide a general overview of the many descendant branches of our Barton family tree. There will be more information on my wife's immediate family, and their story, as that is what I am most familiar with, but I hope that it will also provide a better understanding of the other descendant lines, and how we are all related.

Throughout the document, to protect their privacy, I have tried to avoid providing details of living relatives, and I apologize if this cut-off has not been perfectly executed.

This is not intended to be the final word on the Barton family of High Wycombe, and I hope that over time, new information will be identified, and that people from the various descendant branches might add additional chapters to this document, expanding the story of their Barton lines.

I apologise for any errors that may have crept into the document, and I welcome any corrections, family photographs, or other feedback which could be incorporated into a future revision.

The chart on the next page shows with yellow highlight, the ancestral line that is the focus of this document.

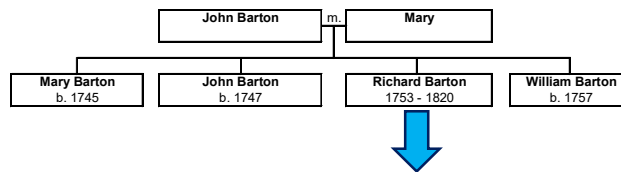

Chapter 1 – The Early Generations

The surname Barton first appears in the High Wycombe parish records with the marriage of John Barton and Barbara Fellowe on 26 April 1619. However the first Barton entry that I can connect Marlene's known Bartons back to is the baptism of Mary, daughter of John and Mary Barton on 18 November 1745.

John and Mary Barton baptised four children in High Wycombe, as follows –

- Mary Barton, baptised 18 November 1745
- John Barton, baptised 24 January 1747
- Richard Barton, baptised 24 March 1753
- William S. Barton, baptised 13 June 1757

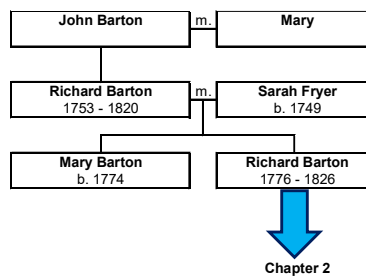

The third child of John and Mary, Richard Barton, is Marlene's ancestor.

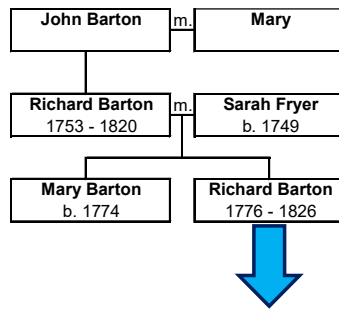

Richard Barton, born in 1753, married Sarah Fryer in High Wycombe on 27 July 1772, and the marriage produced two children, as follows –

- Mary Barton, baptised 21 September 1774
- Richard Barton, baptised 22 April 1776

We will cover Richard Barton in more detail in chapter 2.

Chapter 2 – Richard Barton and Ann

Richard Barton, the younger known child of Richard Barton and Sarah Fryer, was baptised at High Wycombe on 22 April 1776.

Richard likely married Ann (maiden surname unknown) in a parish other than High Wycombe, as there is no record of their marriage in the High Wycombe parish registers, but they did baptise eleven children in the High Wycombe parish church, as follows –

- Sarah Fryer Barton, baptised 27 June 1798
- Elizabeth Barton, baptised 26 December 1799
- Joseph Barton, baptised 25 December 1801
- Charles Barton, baptised 18 September 1803
- Abraham Barton, baptised 31 May 1805
- Mathias Barton, baptised 8 April 1807
- Edmund Barton, baptised 18 January 1809
- James Barton, baptised 13 September 1811
- Sarah Barton, baptised 20 June 1813
- Michael Barton, baptised 9 November 1814
- Richard Barton, baptised 29 October 1815

The Church of England introduced pre-printed parish register forms in 1812, which included where the family lived and the father's occupation, so with the baptism of Sarah in 1813 we learn that the family lived in Wycombe and that Richard was a butcher by trade. His descendants continued working as butchers in High Wycombe until at least 1911.

I have not researched all eleven children of Richard and Ann in detail, collecting only obvious information found in readily available records. We will cover the fourth child, Charles, in chapter 3, but the other known descendants of Richard and Ann are as follows –

Richard Barton died in 1826 and was buried in High Wycombe on 27 September 1826. His will identified that his wife Ann was still alive. She is likely the Ann Barton who was buried in High Wycombe on 01 April 1839, aged 66 years.

Chapter 3 – Charles Barton and Elizabeth Suckling

Charles Barton, baptised at High Wycombe on 18 September 1803 was the fourth child of Richard and Ann Barton.

Charles became a butcher, as was his father, and on 13 May 1829 he married Elizabeth Suckling in St. Pancras, London.

Charles and Elizabeth Barton produced three children as follows –

- Charles Barton, baptised 11 March 1832
- Emma Barton, baptised 11 May 1834
- Ann Suckling Barton, baptised 29 March 1836

The younger Charles Barton married and had a large family, which will be covered in detail in chapter 4.

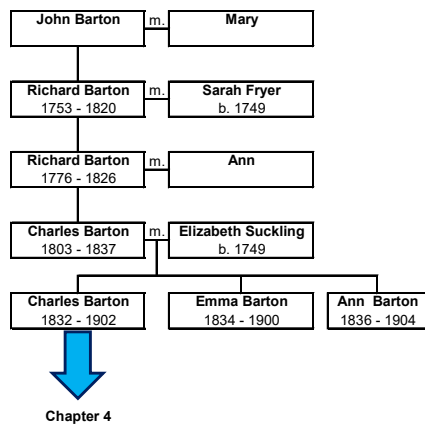

Emma Barton, second child of Charles and Elizabeth, did not marry and lived at home until her mother passed away in 1884. She died early in 1900 and was buried in the High Wycombe cemetery on 18 January 1900.

The youngest child of Charles and Elizabeth, Ann Suckling Barton, married John Cameron Evans on 22 May 1866, and died in High Wycombe in 1904. Their known descendants are as follows -

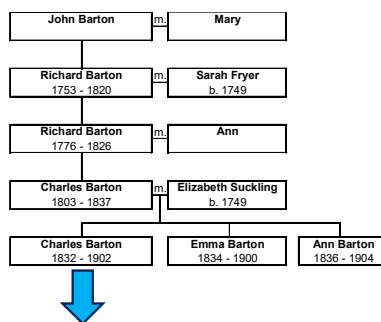

1. Ann Suckling BARTON (c.29 Mar 1836-High Wycombe, Buckingham, England; d. Oct/Dec 1904-Wycombe, Buckingham, England)
sp: John Cameron EVANS (b. Jan/Mar 1838-High Wycombe, Buckingham, England; m.22 May 1866; d. Jul/Sep 1908-Wycombe, Buckingham, England)

 2. Minnie EVANS (b. Oct/Dec 1873-High Wycombe, Buckingham, England; d. Jul/Sep 1925-Wycombe, Buckingham, England)

Charles Barton senior died at the age of 34 years and was buried in High Wycombe on 30 December 1837. His wife, Elizabeth, continued on business as a butcher, with help from her son, Charles junior. Elizabeth died at 84 years of age and was buried 4 March 1884 in High Wycombe cemetery.

Chapter 4 – Charles Barton and Sarah Scott

Charles Barton, the eldest child of Charles Barton and Elizabeth Suckling, was baptised at High Wycombe on 11 March 1832. His father passed away when Charles was only 5 years old, leaving his mother, Elizabeth, to carry on the family butcher business.

By 1851ⁱⁱ, 19 year old Charles was already a journeyman butcher, working in the family business on Easton Street, living at home with his mother and sister Emma.

Two years later, on 24 June 1853, Charles Barton married Sarah Scott in the parish church at nearby Wooburn, Buckinghamshire. This marriage produced fourteen children as follows –

- Charles Barton, born Oct-Dec 1853
- Sarah Annie Barton, born 12 March 1855
- Alfred Barton, baptised 18 January 1857
- Ada Barton, baptised 21 February 1858
- Emma Barton, born Oct-Dec 1859
- Julia Barton, born 6 May 1861
- Jane Barton, born 13 November 1862
- Alice Barton, baptised 24 July 1864; buried 28 February, 1867
- Ellen Barton, born Jul-Sep 1864
- Rose Barton, baptised 16 September 1866; died Jan-Mar 1867
- Elizabeth Barton, born Jan-Mar 1868; buried 25 September 1869
- Minnie Barton, baptised 22 August 1869; buried 7 February 1870
- Edith Barton, born 13 April 1871
- Eva Gertrude Barton, born 10 March 1874

It was a large family, but of the fourteen children, four died before reaching their third birthday, four others did not marry, and three married but had no children. Only three married and had children of their own.

The eldest child, another Charles, initially joined the family butcher trade, but by 1881 he had joined the Royal Horse Artillery. At some point he married Miriam Cooper, but I have found no record of their marriage in England or Wales. By 1911, Charles was a widower, working as a butcher, in Chelsea, London. His known descendants are as follows –

1. Charles BARTON (b. Oct/Dec 1853-Wycombe, Buckingham, England; d. Aft 1910)
sp: Miriam COOPER (b. Abt 1863-Battersea, Surrey, England; d. Jan/Mar 1908-Wandsworth, London, England)

Sarah Annie Barton, the second child of Charles and Sarah will be covered in detail in chapter 5.

Alfred Barton headstone – High Wycombe.

Alfred, the third child, was also a butcher. He married Grace Charlotte Gibson in 1879, and although they had no biological children, they adopted Marjorie, the youngest daughter of Grace's brother, Alfred Gibson, after his death in 1908.

Alfred and Grace died in August and November of 1935 respectively, and both are buried in the High Wycombe cemetery.

Ada Barton did not marry, but worked her whole life as a dressmaker, employing other seamstresses, and died in High Wycombe on 21 October 1931.

Emma Barton worked as a music teacher and schoolmistress. She married later in life, on 10 April 1905, to John Suckling, and the couple resided at Romford, Essex until their deaths in 1928 and 1942 respectively.

Julia Barton also did not marry, but operated a fancy draper and hosier shop in High Wycombe. She died on 31 March 1941 at High Wycombe.

Jane Barton worked as a bookkeeper in the family butcher business and died unmarried in 1940.

Alice Barton died in 1867 at two years of age.

Ellen Barton lived at home with her parents until their death, and later lived with her sister Jane. She died at High Wycombe in 1923.

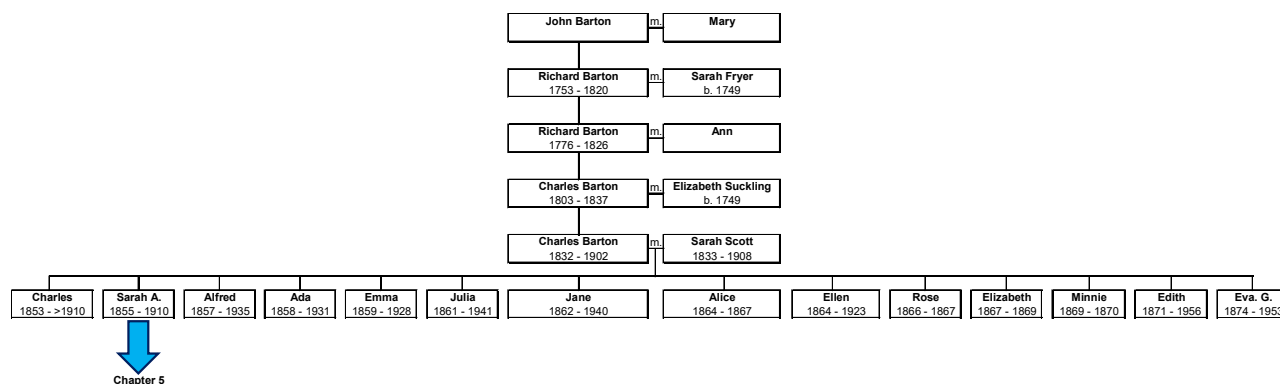

Rose, Elizabeth and Minnie Barton all died prior to their second birthday.

Edith Barton worked as a milliner for a fancy draper in Folkestone, Kent before marrying Charles Frederick Brunson on 24 October 1898. Charles died in 1944 at Eton, and Edith died in 1956 at Maidenhead, Berkshire. Their known descendants are as follows –

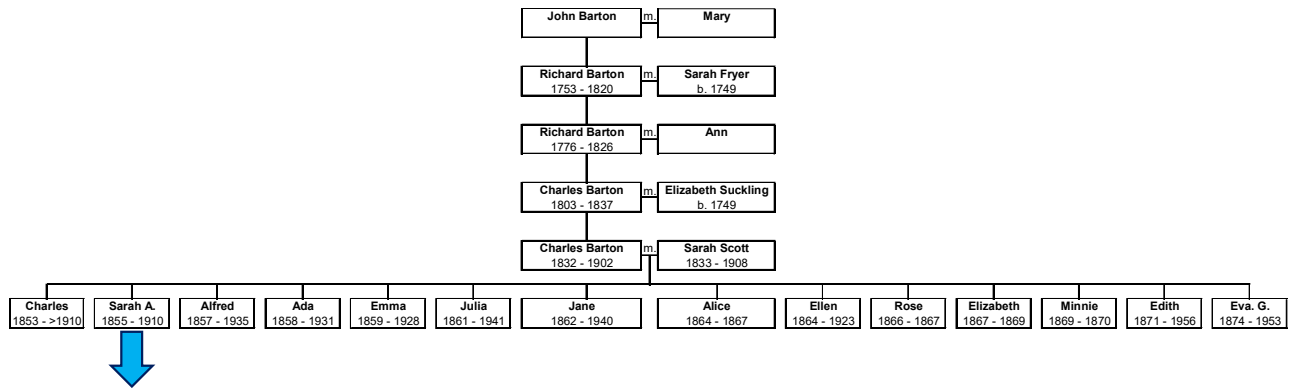

1. Edith BARTON (b.13 Apr 1871-Wycombe, Buckingham, England; d. Jul/Sep 1956-Maidenhead, Berkshire, England)
 sp: Charles Frederick BRUNSDON (b.16 Sep 1866-Windsor, Berkshire, England; m.24 Oct 1898; d. Oct/Dec 1944-Eton, Buckingham, England)

3. Michael BRUNSDON (b. Jan/Mar 1931-Windsor, Berkshire, England; d. Jan/Mar 1931-Windsor, Berkshire, England)
3. Judy BRUNSDON (b. Jul/Sep 1936-Eton, Buckingham, England)

Eva Gertrude Barton worked as a milliner and a draper's assistant, before marrying Edgar Sidney Binks in 1923, at 49 years of age. Edgar died in Carshalton, Surrey on 1 April 1946 and Eva died on 5 January 1953 at Dover, Kent.

Charles and Sarah Barton did well in the butcher business and circa 1858 they opened a second shop, at 2 Oxford Road, High Wycombe. Charles died on 3 March 1902 and Sarah on 29 February 1908.

Chapter 5 - Sarah Annie Barton and Thomas Spriggs

Sarah Annie Barton, the eldest daughter of Charles Barton and Sarah Scott was born at Wooburn Green, Buckinghamshire on 12 March 1855. By 1861ⁱⁱⁱ she and her parents were living above the butcher shop at 2 Oxford Road, High Wycombe.

The family were still at 2 Oxford Road in 1871^{iv}, and next door at number 4 lived Frederick Manning, a draper, who also lived above his shop. Frederick Manning's household included his 15 year old apprentice, Thomas Spriggs, the fifth child of Charles Spriggs and Mary Ann Bridgewater, of West Wycombe, Buckinghamshire.

Sarah A. Barton & Thomas Spriggs in 1871 census.

In 1875, at 20 years old, Sarah Annie Barton, married Thomas Spriggs, and they moved to Newlands in High Wycombe. Charles Barton was likely not very happy about his daughter marrying the draper's apprentice, but Sarah was 7 months pregnant, so this was a better option than Sarah giving birth as a single woman.

By 1881^v, Thomas and Sarah were living at Water Street, with Thomas working as a grocer, and employing an apprentice of his own. The census identifies 3 children, but Sarah had borne two other children who died as babies – the first born, Annie, in 1876, and Thomas, born in 1879 who died at less than 6 months old in 1880. The grocery business must have been doing well, as the family could afford a house servant, Lizzie Jones.

In 1891^{vi} the family was living at Brook Street, with Sarah taking care of the grocery business and Thomas working as a provision traveller. Perhaps the family needed the additional income as three more children had joined the family – Eva, Alice and Henry H. (known as Hamp). Sadly, two other children born to the family since the last census did not see their first birthday – Charles born in 1886 and Edith born in 1887 had died in 1886 and 1888 respectively. There was one other child born to Thomas and Sarah between 1881 and 1891, who was not listed with the family in the 1891 census – Stanley, born in 1882, was found in the household of his mother's sisters at Bridgers Yard, off Easton Street.

The family was still living in Brook Street in 1901^{vii}, with one new addition to the family – Arthur D. Spriggs. The family had again lost two young children – Edward, born in 1892, had died in 1896 and Gertrude, born in 1896 died as an infant.

Several of the older children, Bertha, Ethel and Alfred, had left home by this time. At the time of the census, Bertha was living on London Road with her Mother's sister Ada, and working as a dressmaker. Ethel and Alfred had moved to London, where Ethel worked as a boot saleswoman and Alfred, a butcher by trade, had joined the army and was fighting in the South Africa (Boer) war.

The 1911 census^{viii} identified that Thomas was now a widower, with Sarah having died on 20 November 1910 at the age of 55 years. Bertha Nellie and Arthur Douglass were living at home, along with Marjorie Reid, daughter of Eva Spriggs. Eva was heavily pregnant with her second child at the time, so had perhaps sent Marjorie to stay with the grandfather and aunt.

Thomas Spriggs & family in 1911 census.

Thomas and Sarah had produced a total of 14 children, eight of whom lived to adulthood, six married, and five produced children of their own. Thomas survived the second world war, and died in early 1947, aged 91 years.

Ethel Spriggs did not marry, continued working as a saleswoman, and died in High Wycombe on 1 February 1972.

Alice Spriggs married a storekeeper, Ernest Hancock, in High Wycombe in 1930. The couple had no children, and Ernest died in 1969. Alice died in Northampton on 7 November 1982.

Henry Hamp Spriggs, known as Hamp, emigrated to Duck Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada, as did his brothers Alfred and Arthur. Hamp took out a homestead on the block next to his brother Alfred, but sold it in 1912 and moved into the village of Duck Lake. He died on 29 April 1913 after falling through the ice on a local river.

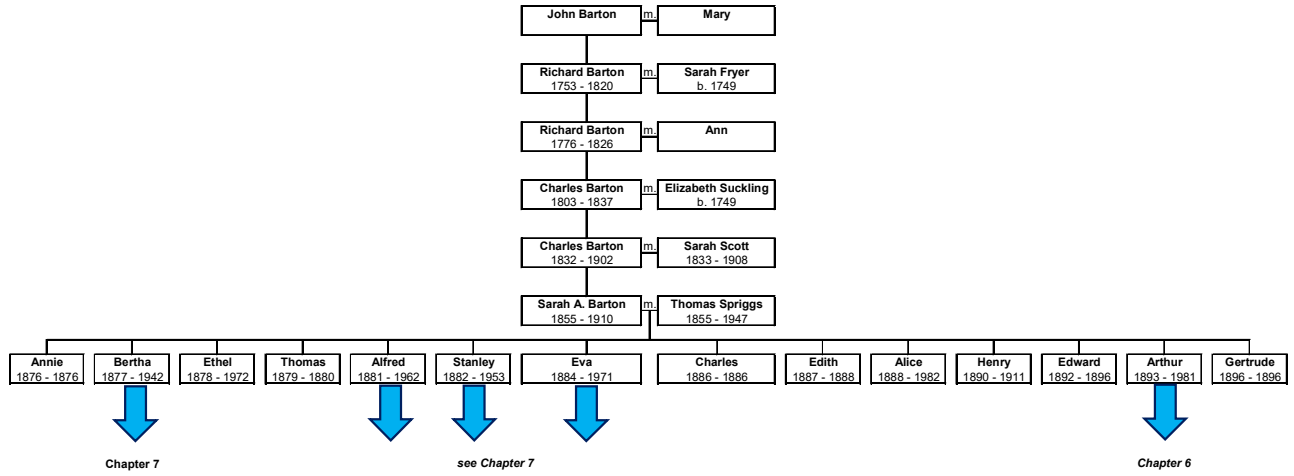

Thomas Spriggs (1855 – 1947).

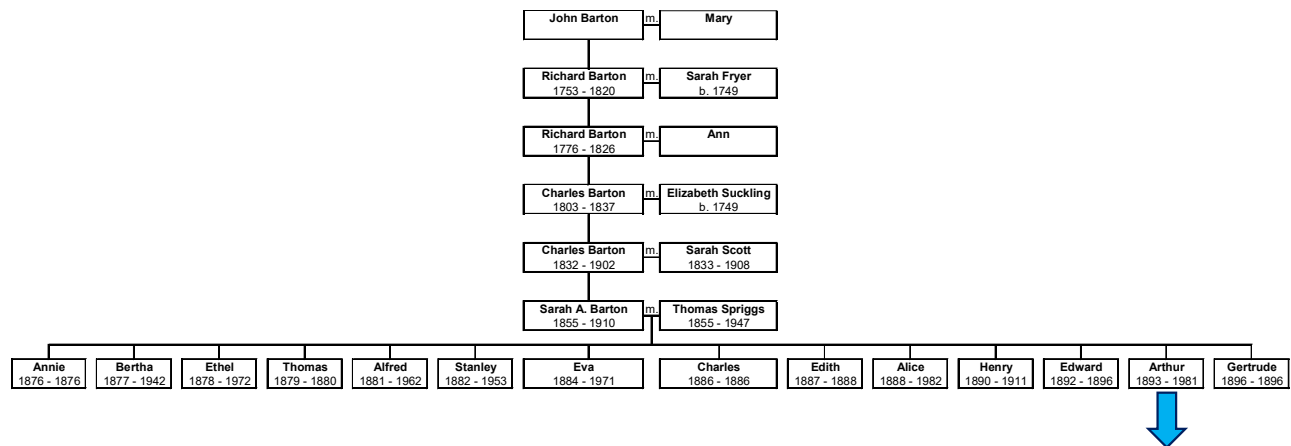

Sarah Annie Barton (1855 – 1910).

We will cover Arthur Douglass Spriggs in chapter 6 and the remaining children of Sarah and Thomas in chapter 7.

Chapter 6 – Arthur Douglass Spriggs and Elsie Elizabeth Preston

Arthur Douglass Spriggs was born in High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire, England on 23 March 1893, the last child of Thomas and Sarah Annie Spriggs to reach adulthood. His younger sister Gertrude had died as a baby.

In 1911 Arthur left High Wycombe and headed to Saskatchewan, Canada, to join his brothers Alfred and Henry (Hamp) in Duck Lake. In 1912 he applied for a homestead on the front of the SW quarter of Section 33, Township 45, Range 6, West of the 3rd meridian. He worked his property in the summer months and helped his brother Alfred in his butchery business in the winter.

The First World War broke out in 1914, and on 8 June 1915 Arthur signed up to serve in the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force, attesting at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. The then 22 year old butcher is recorded on the attestation papers as being 5 ft. 7 ½ in. tall, with fair hair and blue eyes. After agreeing to the nature and terms of engagement, agreeing to be vaccinated, and passing the medical inspection he was deemed fit for service.

Arthur did not immediately go overseas, as on 6 November 1915 he married Florence Edna Reid in All Saints Anglican church in Duck Lake. But just two weeks later, on 23 November 1915 he sailed for England with the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, and by January of 1916 he had joined the fighting in mainland Europe.

Arthur D. Spriggs.

The war was not kind to Arthur, but he did survive it. On 31 May 1916 he was hospitalized due to trench fever while serving at Ypres in Belgium, returning to the trenches on 22 July. The battalion moved to France, and in September he was promoted to Lance Corporal, whilst serving at the Somme. In October, still fighting at the Somme, an exploding shell buried him in a dugout from which he suffered a contusion of the back and shell shock, which took him out of the fight. Arthur spent six months in hospital in England, and on leaving hospital he returned, at his own request, to the ranks. He served in England for the remainder of the war and returned to Canada in May 1919, after 3 ½ years away, to find his wife and her 6 month old daughter living with another man.

On leaving the army, Arthur moved to Saskatoon and joined the Canadian Post Office as a mail clerk, a position he held until his retirement in 1958. Arthur settled into life in Saskatoon, joined the choir at the local Anglican church, and it was here that he met Elsie Elizabeth Preston. Elsie was also born in England, and had come to Canada with her parents and her brother Ted in 1908.

Arthur Spriggs & Elsie Preston 50th wedding anniversary.

Arthur Spriggs and Elsie Preston were married on 14 September 1929 at the Knox United church in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. On the marriage registration, both listed their religion as Anglican, so we can only guess that the Anglican minister perhaps would not marry a divorced person, even one who sang in his choir, hence their marriage in the United church. After their wedding, Arthur and Elsie lived at 914 – 5th Avenue North, just down the street from Elsie's parents, who lived at number 901. Here they raised two children, Gerald, born in 1931 and his younger sister, Gladys. During the summer months the family would spend time at Waskesiu Lake in Prince Albert National Park, along with the family of Arthur's brother, Alfred.

In the late 1970s Arthur and Elsie moved from their home of 30 years into an apartment just a few blocks away. It was here that Arthur died in 1981 and Elsie in 1998. Both are buried in the Woodlawn cemetery in Saskatoon.

Gerry joined the Royal Bank of Canada in Saskatoon at 18 years old and continued working in the bank until his retirement in 1987, never staying in one city for more than a few years at a time. He was working in Rosetown, Saskatchewan when he met Fredda Sim, and they married in Rosetown in 1953, as Gerry was being transferred to Foam Lake, Saskatchewan. They moved to Foam Lake the following week, and it was there that their daughter Marlene Lynn (my wife), and son, Arthur William, were born, before Gerry was transferred to Regina (1957), Montreal (1965), Calgary (1966), Montreal (1969), Toronto (1976) and Winnipeg (1982). Their third child, Robert Gerald, was born in Montreal. After retirement, Gerry and Fredda relocated to Cloverdale, British Columbia, to enjoy the coastal climate. But Gerry's golden years were cut short and he died in 1989 at his daughter's house in Calgary, and he is buried there in the Queen's Park cemetery.

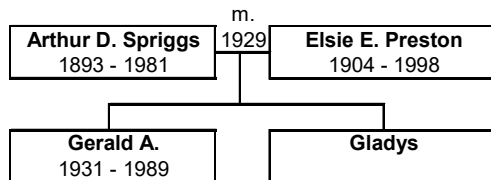

Gerry Spriggs & Fredda Sim's wedding.

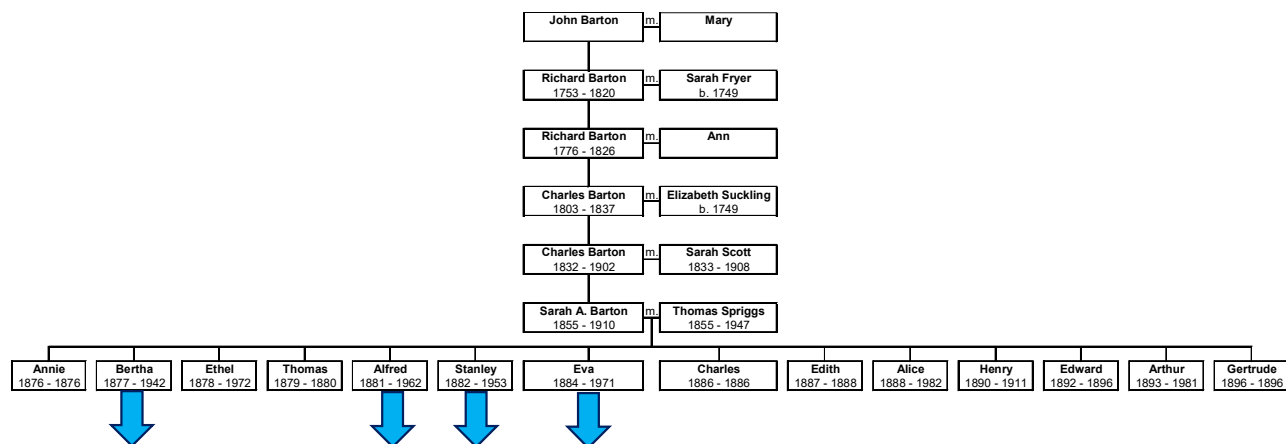

Gladys Spriggs Nursing Graduation.

Gladys graduated as a nurse and spent her career working in hospitals and care facilities. She married Mervyn Smith in Saskatoon in 1959, which is where they raised their two sons, and where Mervyn died in 1991 after a career in the City of Saskatoon Electrical Department.

Chapter 7 – Other children of Sarah A. Barton & Thomas Spriggs

Bertha Nellie Spriggs was born in High Wycombe in 1917 and married James Lunn, a soldier, in 1917. They do not appear to have had any children. At some point Bertha travelled to South Africa, as while travelling from Cape Town to Liverpool on the M.V. Ambosso, she died on 29 October 1942 when the ship was torpedoed by German submarine U-575, 589 nautical miles north of the Azores.

Alfred Spriggs, the eldest son to survive to adulthood, was born in 1881. He served with British forces in the South African (Boer) War, before emigrating to Duck Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada. In 1905 he married Laura Kennedy and they produced 9 children. Alfred and Laura have numerous living descendants, many of whom are still in Saskatchewan. Alfred operated a butchery business, a skill that he no doubt learned from his maternal grandfather, Charles Barton, back in High Wycombe. He died in 1962 and Laura died in 1973. Both are buried in the Duck Lake cemetery.

Stanley George Spriggs was born 21 April 1882. He worked as an upholsterer and married Rose Gomme in 1905. Stanley and Rose raised 4 children, with their second son, Ronald Stanley, dying in an automobile accident in 1937. The remaining 3 children all married and had children of their own.

Eva Spriggs was born in 1884 and worked as a boot shop assistant, before marrying Robert Reid in Falkirk, Scotland in 1908. Eva and Bob Reid raised 4 children in Scotland, and Eva died there in 1971.

Basic information on these families is provided below, but again I have limited the information to three generations, to try and protect the privacy of living descendants –

Chapter 8 – DNA Testing

Autosomal DNA testing, through companies such as Ancestry, 23andMe, MyHeritage and FamilyTreeDNA, is of huge benefit to genealogists in confirming connections identified by researching the paper trail of our ancestors. If two people who have well-researched family trees, which identify a common ancestor, also share autosomal DNA, and if there is no other obvious ancestral connection, then it is highly likely that the identified common ancestor is correct.

Through comparison of the autosomal DNA results of my wife, Marlene Spriggs, with the results of others who have taken DNA tests, I have found Barton cousins who were previously unknown to me, back to the third cousin level. So autosomal DNA testing has been instrumental in confirming my wife's Barton ancestry.

The chart below shows some of Marlene's Barton connections confirmed with autosomal DNA testing, but not all known DNA connections have been included in the chart to improve readability.

It is unlikely that relatives beyond fifth cousins will share significant amounts of autosomal DNA, so for more distant connections on the male ancestral line, Y-DNA testing could also be very useful.

The Y-chromosome is passed down the male line from father to son, largely unchanged, although mutations do occur from time to time. It is these mutations that create what is termed “genetic distance” between Y-DNA samples – the genetic distance between two samples increases by 1 with each mutation on either line of descent from a common ancestor. The relative stability of the Y-chromosome is therefore useful in identifying common male ancestors in ancient times.

I therefore encourage male Barton descendants to take the Big Y-700 test at FamilyTreeDNA, or even the somewhat cheaper Y-111 test, which could help to clarify how our Barton family fits into the overall haplotree of humankind. These tests are frequently on sale, especially around Black Friday in November.

To date I am not aware of any Barton male descendants of early High Wycombe Bartons who have taken Y-DNA tests, so even one person testing would be useful, and several, from different lines of descent would be a bonus.
